

Burns

Refer to the Burn Chart appendix.

Patients with more than 10% of their body surface area burned / with circular burns should be treated in specialized Burn Centers.

An adult with 25% of their body surface area affected is considered to have major burns; in children, it's 20%.